Level 4

Level 5

- Pilkington Texture Glass offers privacy and style throughout the home.
- Five levels of privacy are available, graded from 1 (least obscuration) to 5 (greatest obscuration).
- There are 12 original patterns in the main range, including exclusive designs by Oliver Heath of Blustin Heath Design, a regular on the BBC's Home Front and Changing Rooms series.
- Pilkington patterned glass can be glazed in any orientation but adjacent panes should always have the same orientation.
- All are available toughened or laminated for safety and security.
- All are suitable for double glazing.
- The range is widely available from your local glass merchant or glazier.
- All patterns are available in 4mm thickness with a smaller range available in 6mm.

For privacy, pure style or to allow more light into internal rooms, decorative glass gives you a whole range of attractive options. In fact, Pilkington gives you no fewer than 18 different textured glass designs, together with our premium range of etched glass – from classic to contemporary, no one offers a bigger choice.

The advantages of Pilkington decorative glass are easy to see, too: it allows maximum light while maintaining privacy or obscuring unattractive views, and also forms an attractive decorative feature itself.

With new texture designs regularly added and the Pilkington Oriel etched glass range offering even more possibilities, there really is no better choice of decorative glass for your home.
